Immerse Yourself in the Enchanting World of 'Augustine Came to Kent'

Step into the captivating pages of Barbara Willard's beloved novel, 'Augustine Came to Kent,' and embark on an extraordinary journey through the heart of Anglo-Saxon England. This timeless masterpiece transports readers to a world of faith, adventure, and the dawn of a new era.

At the center of this enthralling tale is Augustine, an enigmatic missionary sent by Pope Gregory the Great to convert the pagan Anglo-Saxons to Christianity. Accompanied by a small band of devoted followers, Augustine sets sail for the unknown shores of Kent, carrying with him the message of the Gospel.

As Augustine and his companions navigate the treacherous waters and unfamiliar landscapes, they encounter a myriad of challenges and obstacles. They face the skepticism of the local Bevölkerung, the hostility of pagan priests, and the ever-present threat of danger in a foreign land.

Yet, amidst the adversity, Augustine's unwavering faith and determination shine like a beacon of hope. He preaches with eloquence and compassion, gradually winning over the hearts and minds of the Anglo-Saxons. With each conversion, the seeds of Christianity take root, transforming the very fabric of society.
