Star is a bright and inquisitive young woman who is searching for her place in the world. She is drawn to the glamour and excitement of the 1960s counterculture, but she also struggles with the social and political unrest of the time. As she comes of age, Star experiences the joys and sorrows of first love, heartbreak, and loss. She also grapples with questions about her identity, her purpose, and the meaning of life.

Star Dancer Rundell is a beautifully written and deeply moving coming-of-age story. Rundell's prose is lyrical and evocative, and she creates a vivid and immersive world for her characters. The novel is filled with unforgettable characters, from Star's rebellious and charismatic boyfriend, to her wise and loving grandmother. Star Dancer Rundell is a must-read for anyone who has ever struggled with the complexities of love, loss, and the search for meaning.
